

CENTRE INTERNATIONAL D'ÉTUDE DU SPORT

DOCUMENTATION CENTRE

READER'S GUIDE 2019

INHOUSE

> The Documentation Centre provides researchers, professors, students and the general public with documentation in sports law, sociology, history, geography, management of sport.

> Library is open Monday to Friday during CIES opening hours 8.30-12.00 and 13.30-17.30

> Studying in the reading room between 12.00 and 14.00 pm (Monday-Friday) is occasionally possible on appointment.

> Loans on site are free of charge.

> Loans are for a period of up to 1 month. A reduced loan time of 2 weeks may be applied for the sake of the FIFA Master course.

> Some restrictions on loans are applied to the sports law collection (red stickers).

> CIES is part of a network of Swiss libraries which offers loan services (https://explore.rero.ch/en_US/rero). Books from other libraries may be borrowed (paying service).

> The CIES catalogue is on the web :
URL : <http://www.cies.ch/documentation>.

> You are welcome to seek assistance from the librarian (Monday morning to Thursday at noon)

ONLINE RESOURCES

> E-serials, E-books, databases, encyclopaedias, newspapers available online at the University of Neuchâtel :
<http://www.unine.ch/bibliotheque>

OTHER DATABASES :

Digital Olympic Collection :
<https://bit.ly/1m76VQ1>

Olympic World Library (Lausanne) :
<https://library.olympic.org/Default/presentation-generale.aspx?lg=en-GB>

LINKS

> Metacatalogue of the Swiss Sports Libraries :
<http://www.cies.ch/documentation/metacatalogue>

> Swiss Sports Documentation Centres :
<http://docsportch.wordpress.com/>

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How can I consult the IOC library catalogue ?

-> Go to the web portal of the Olympic Studies Centre :

<https://www.olympic.org/olympic-studies-centre>

How do I get a login and a password to use the loan service in CIES?

-> You need to be registered by your CIES librarian on the basis of your student ID card delivered by the University of Neuchâtel or any ID card having the Swiss Bibliopass logo on it.

Can I borrow a book from the IOC library ?

Yes, on site (free service) or through interlibrary loan (paying service).

- > You have to be registered in the Olympic Studies Centre Catalogue. Ask information: studies.centre@olympic.org

May I return books belonging to the IOC library to the CIES documentation centre ?

Yes, if you are enrolled in the FIFA Master programme !

Send an e-mail to : documentation.cies@unine.ch

(Ms. Marie-Claude Borel, Librarian)

Updated April 24, 2019

*International Centre for Sports Studies, Documentation centre
c/o Hôtel DuPeyrou - Avenue DuPeyrou 1 – CH-2000 Neuchâtel Tel. 0041 (0)32 718 39 00*