

International MA in Management, Law and Humanities of Sport STUDENT CHARTER

The charter is a guide to your responsibilities as a FIFA Master student and will help explain what the course team should do for you.

FIFA Master Course Team Commitments to you

Teaching and Learning

- Deliver teaching informed by world-class research
- Use appropriate technology to support your studies
- Offer varied assessment methods and provide constructive feedback

Support

- Develop your confidence and independence, helping you fulfil your potential
- Provide academic, professional and personal support when you need it

Course environment

- Offer a truly international learning environment to the class
- Provide opportunities to meet and learn from key individuals from the world of professional sport business
- Use case studies to develop your understanding of sport

Awareness

- The FIFA Master academic and administration team will communicate with you clearly, effectively and in good time
- Consult and listen to your views and feedback

Dignity and Respect

- Ensure that we respect and celebrate the cultural and international diversity of the FIFA Master community in all of our activities
- Treat FIFA Master students and staff with dignity and respect, both in person and online

Your commitments as a FIFA Master student

Teaching and learning

- Prepare in advance for all lectures and properly plan your learning workload
- Complete all work to deadlines and learn from assessment feedback
- Share and discuss your ideas and actively participate in all lectures

Support

- Take responsibility for developing your skills
- Recognise and develop your employability
- Ensure that you are on time and well prepared for lectures and field visits

Actively contribute to the academic year

- Take part in academic and social activities throughout the academic year
- Engage with formal and informal feedback and networking opportunities

Awareness

- Act as an ambassador for the FIFA Master programme
- Work as a responsible and committed team member in all group activities

Dignity and Respect

- Treat members of the class and FIFA Master staff with dignity and respect both in person and online
- Respect yourself, class members, partner universities and wider community